

A Guide to Wearing Your Belt.

The Parker Flower Knot

Fold your belt in Equal Halves and hold in the centre

Place the Centre of Your Belt on your Stomach

Wrap the Belt around your waist One Complete Wrap

Hold both ends after wrapping the belt around your waist and check that the ends are the same length.

Fold the Belt in the middle with the Left Side over the Right While still holding the Belt together in the middle

While still holding the Belt together in the middle, fold the Left Side Under the both layers of your belt and pull up.

Fold the Left Side down and open in between the belt layers on your stomach and pull the left side through Loosely to create a Loop for the next step.

Fold the Right Side up & across in between the loop we just made in step 4 and pull the right side through.

Pull both Ends tight to complete the knot, the belt should now hang evenly from both sides.
